COMBINE IN CAMPAIGN

Effort to Free the National Capital of All Disease-Breeding

Accumulations.

Everything is in readiness for Washington's first clean up—paint up campaign, which is to open tomorrow and capital has had three clean up periods, the first of these being in the spring of 1912, and the work this spring, broadened to include paint up activities with the city clean up, is a continuance on a larger scale of the preceding campaigns. Plans for the two weeks of activity were completed at a meeting Friday night of the clean city committee, the executive committee of the Master House Painters and Decorators' Association and the many organizations which

There have been showers and thunderstorms in the last twenty-four hours in the southern Rocky mountain region and Texas. In other parts of the country, the weather remained fair. A storm of marked intensity was charted Saturday in the vicinity of Bermuda, and it was then moving northeastward toward Newfoundland. Shipping at Atlantic coast ports has been advised to this effect. The indications are that the weather will be generally fair Sunday and Monday in the southern Rocky mountain region it will be partly cloudy, with scattered showers and thunderstorms. The Master Painters' organization has aided materially in financing the 1915 campaign, its donation of $200 to the clean city's fund being the largest single contribution received by the committee.

All Associations Co-Operating.

Practically every citizens' association. as well as all commercial organizations; thousands of school children troops of Boy Scouts and Camp Fire Girls, and other civic organizations women's clubs-including the loca hapters of the Daughters of the Amer ican Revolution and the Federation of Women's Clubs-have pledged co-op eration in the two weeks' warfare against dirt, disease and untidiness in he National Capital; while the District health department and othe ranches of the District government are aiding in the campaign, which is designed to clean every corner of the District, remove every vestige of the winter's accumulations of trash, refuse and garbage, and thus bring about better sanitary and hygienic conditions throughout the District during the coming summer.

ment this year by means of the clean up—paint up buttons, signs, cards, colored slides shown in motion picture theaters and by the columns of washington, has resulted in centering attention on the efforts to rid the city of the clampaign. The buttons, lantern slides, signs, etc., used in calling attention to the clean up—paint up campaign were supplied by the executive committee of the master painters' organization, of which A. H. McGhan is chairman.

That Washington's clean up—paint up program has attracted attention outside the District of Columbia is evidenced by the fact that newspapers in many other cities have commented on it. Papers in Baltimore, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Jersey City, Newark, New York, Boston, Cincinnati and other cities have contained accounts of the clean up and paint up activities in this city, and several of the cities mentioned have inaugurated campaigns along similar lines.

The clean city committee and the forces co-operating with it last night issued an appeal to all citizens of Washington to do their utmost in aid of the campaign. Citizens were urged in the appeal to report, either to the clean city committee or to the street cleaning division of the District, an cleaning division of the District, any premises coming under their notice which need cleaning up.

Firms and individuals in the painting and allied industries in Washington report that a greater volume of painting, paperhanging, etc. is in progress or arranged for this spring than in any former spring in many years. Reports from charitable organizations are to the effect that hundreds of requests have been received by them for men to work from a day or so to two weeks at cleaning up, and that hundreds of men who have been practically without work during the winter are employed on jobs that enable them to support themselves, and in many instances, their experience without further calls for hemselves, and in many instances, heir families, without further calls for
